

Coming Soon

Whole Foods Opening Announced for Oct 18th

BEVERLY — The new Whole Foods Market in Beverly will open on Friday, Oct. 18, according to an announcement from the company on Wednesday.

The store will open at 8 a.m. The opening day celebration will include complimentary coffee, pastries and music, the company said in a press release.

The Whole Foods, located at 150 Brimbal Ave., is part of the new North Shore Crossing plaza. The 34,500-square-foot store will include hundreds of products from local suppliers, according to the company.

The first 200 customers on the opening day will receive a Whole Foods Market Beverly canvas tote bag and a savings card with a "mystery" value ranging between $5 and $100, the company said.